

POSITION: Health Educator Technician
STATUS: Part-Time
DEPARTMENT: Community Health
SALARY: $14.91-17.28
OPEN: December 30, 2024
CLOSES: When filled, first review of applications: January 21, 2024.

JOB SUMMARY: Reporting to the Community Health Director, this role involves executing tobacco prevention initiatives and overseeing compliance purchases.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

- Provide personal transportation to meet Health Educators across the district.
- Age requirement: 16 to 20 years old, possessing a valid driver's license or actively pursuing one.
- Must pass a Bureau of Criminal Investigation check.
- Maintain open and accurate communication with the supervisor.
- Uphold strict confidentiality in all aspects of compliance checks and related tobacco activities.
- Execute duties as a decoy, including requesting tobacco product purchases, presenting valid identification, and liaising with law enforcement concerning clerk interactions.
- Communicate effectively and truthfully about activities within retail establishments.
- Attend court proceedings if required and provide testimony on tobacco compliance check details.
- Participate in decoy training sessions.
- Support community events.
- Distribute health education materials.
- Assist in observational surveys.
- Collaborate with health educators to develop health promotion campaigns.

To Apply: Applications may be obtained from the Central Utah Health Department Richfield office or at www.centralutahpublichealth.org. Completed applications can be submitted in person, by mail to Angie Knaphus at 70 Westview Drive, Richfield, Utah 84701 or email at aknaphus@centralutahhealth.org. Applications must be received by close of business on the job closing date to be considered. Hours of operation are Monday through Thursday 7:30 AM to 5:30 PM.

Central Utah Health Department is an Equal Opportunity Employer.